March 2010 Newsletter

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

It's hard to believe it's March already and that Term two is nearly here. Thank you for an overwhelming response to our first term classes. We hope this term's timetable will further inspire you as we showcase new products and ideas.

- Come in and check out all of our clearance items. Grab a bargain while you can!
- Heat guns on special - $39.95 til 31st March or until sold out.
- Make sure you see the March issue of 'Simply Cards' for a design feature by Cathy.
- Sadly, class kits will no longer be available. Please refer to page two for the new Class terms and conditions.

NEW STAMPS:

Penny Black designs - both clear sets and wood mount have arrived. Plus, there is another shipment due mid April.

NEW PUNCHES:

New designs in both border and corner punches. Using cardstock, add those fancy corners and decorative edges to enhance your paper craft projects.

NEW TEMPLATES:

'EZ Cut' Alphabet die cuts, box making templates and embossing plates. Suitable to be used with the Cuttlebug.

NEW PAPER:

The 'Earth', 'Wind' and 'Fire' range from Alison Ellis. Just released, metallic Fanfare in eight vibrant colours. New Japanese designs. Natural recycled card made from elephant dung – yes, you have read correctly – many colours to choose from.

QUICK CARD IDEA:

Stamp: Hero Arts Flower Medley K5361. New release.

Paper: A4 White Gold/Black Dot - many colours available.

Embossing: Zing Black. Extensive range of 'Zing' in stock.

With polka dot paper, a newly released stamp and shining bright embossing powder it is very easy to make a simple but effective card. Give this one a try.
